

Science Plan

An international consultation process has been carried out to identify IT research priorities and resulted in the Industrial Transformation Science Plan. The Science Plan should be seen as an evolving and dynamic framework for the development of research projects.

A complete HTML- version of the Science Plan is available at the IHDP site.