Interactive brainstorming (Interactive brainstorming)
Interactive brainstorming

Karl-Heinz Simon (simon@usf.uni-kassel.de) and Alexa Matovelle

Summary

Interactive brainstorming is a creative technique of generating ideas to solve a problem.

In the interactive brainstorming process the ideas generated throughout a meeting are gathering. The best ideas are streamlined and discussed in detail.

One advantage of this method is that the synergy of the participants can be harnessing.

Source